3. Briefly describe the work completed with this project :

Chelan County has successfully engaged BNSF to develop and construct a large-scale side channel reconnection on Nason Creek. The County has assembled; (1) a multi-party Design Team to work with Bureau of Reclamation designers on project alternatives, which currently include an evaluation of upstream and downstream connection alternatives and (2) a Coordination Team to identify funding for the project and address policy issues related to the project. This phase of SRFB/RCO funding specifically assisted with development of the initial coordination plan to engage BNSF as well securing an access agreement with BNSF to initiate the project. The County and BNSF did not feel it was necessary to develop an MOA to proceed with the project, although since that time there has been significant project development discussions with BNSF, and BNSF has indicated that construction of the project in 2012 is feasible. Chelan County has successfully engaged BNSF to develop and construct a large-scale side channel reconnection on Nason Creek.
