

Totten Inlet Estuarine Habitat Acquisition

Aerial view of the Project site. Photo from Department of Ecology.

Salt marsh and baymouth spit at the entrance of the estuary.

The forested shoreline along the estuary shoreline serves as an important source of LWD