RE: SEPA Exemption Determination for Peshastin Irrigation District Piping Project

Chelan County is the lead agency for construction of the Peshastin Irrigation District Piping Project. The project includes piping an existing open ditch canal within the existing Peshastin Irrigation District right-of-way. The project is identified in the Wenatchee Watershed Plan, which was reviewed under SEPA in June 2006, and is considered a watershed restoration project. The project is, therefore, categorically exempt from SEPA threshold determination pursuant to RCW 43.21C.0382.
